Use your tax dollars to help our students.

This school year, Christ the King Catholic School is getting $31,777 from the Catholic Schools Opportunity Fund to help students defray their tuition.

Donors to CSOF received a 75% state income tax credit on their gift for making a two-year pledge. They were able to redirect their tax dollars, which they must pay anyway, to help CTK students.

Consider a pledge to CSOF.
This program is a big winner for businesses, individuals -- and students.

PRINCIPAL'S UPDATE

September 25, 2026

Dear Families of Young Children:

As we have entered the 6th week of school, I wanted to take a moment to mark the time and discuss some trends we are seeing in young children. Phase-in is the period of time in which young children typically adapt to the structure of school, learn the routines, and internalize rules and expectations of appropriate behavior in specific spaces. We know this process takes time and we expect this period of adaption and adjustment each year.

While all students have made strides in adjusting to school expectations, we have noticed some general delays in this natural process. Early childhood is a critical timeframe for children, where the groundwork is laid for social, academic, and spiritual development. The architecture of the brain is formed in early childhood, laying a foundation for all future learning and development. We have compiled a list of recommendations both from our own experience and that of experts to remind parents about good practices in early childhood.

- Sleep:

Young children need ample sleep; good sleep begets good sleep; the AAP recommends 10-13 hours of sleep/day for 3-5-year olds.

  - Questions to contemplate: What time does my child go to bed? Do they take a device to bed with them? Are they coming to school rested enough to learn and regulate their emotions?
  - Resource: https://publications.aap.org/aapnews/news/6630/AAP-endorses-new-recommendations-on-sleep-times?autologincheck=redirected

- Nutrition:

It is difficult for children to concentrate when hungry; making sure they are well fed with nutritious food is a basic need.

  - Questions to contemplate: What is my child eating and drinking? How often does my child consume soda, candy, chips, or highly processed foods?

- Screens:

The school views this issue as the single most significant factor affecting the behavior of young children; The AAP recommends a maximum of ONE hour/day of screen time for children aged 3-5-years old.

  - Questions to contemplate: How many hours a day is my child spending on phones, iPads, or devices? Do I give my child a screen at the grocery store, a sibling's game, in the car, or at a restaurant? Is my child watching movies, shows, and online videos that are developmentally appropriate? Do I know what my child is watching/consuming online? How much am I on a device while I am with my child?
  - Resource: https://publications.aap.org/aapnews/news/12960/Policy-addresses-how-to-help-parents-manage-young

- Reading Every Day:

We cannot stress the importance of reading to your young child every day. Reading rich literature to children increases attention spans, introduces vocabulary, promotes complex thinking, and is an enjoyable time with you and your child. Differences in test scores show up in 4th grade, known as the "4th grade slump," which research has connected with exposure to vocabulary through books read to children during early childhood. It is estimated that a million word gap exists by kindergarten for students who were not read to vs. those who were. We recommend that parents read 1-2 books/day to your child.

  - Resource: https://www.aau.edu/newsroom/million-word-gap-children-who-arent-read-home

The family is the Domestic Church and parents are the first and most important teachers of their children. We have shared goals to raise well-formed humans with a strong foundation of faith, academics, and an ability to adapt to different environments and situations. Our mission is to support families and best practices both at home and school. We plan to have a Parent University focusing on early childhood on November 13 at 8:15 a.m. wherein we will share quality book choices, discuss parenting strategies in early childhood, and suggest best practices for supporting your child's development. More details to come.

Sincerely,

Jenny Richard

MONTHLY VIRTUE: HOPE

Feed the Hungry: A New Family Service Opportunity!

CHRIST THE KING CATHOLIC CHURCH

Sunday, October 25 • 11:30am

(fourth Sunday of every month)

Christ the King's Feed the Hungry Ministry is returning to our pre-Covid, monthly, family-based service outreach at the Wiley Post Event Center. On the fourth Sunday of each month, parishioners of all ages are invited to come together to prepare and serve a meal for people experiencing homelessness and hunger in our community.

There are several ways to help! Volunteers are needed to prepare food, serve the meal, and help with cleanup. Families are especially encouraged to participate together in this hands-on opportunity to live out the Corporal Works of Mercy.

Volunteers will meet in the Junior High parking lot at 11:30 a.m. for a brief prayer before caravanning to Wiley Post. Upon arrival around noon, we will unload, set up, serve the meal, and clean up. We expect to finish by approximately 1:45 p.m.

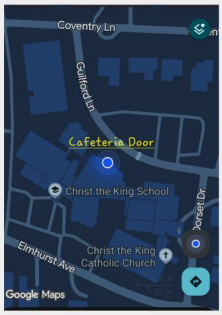

Recipes, instructions, and sign-up information are available via the QR code or on our website at ckokc.org/feed-the-hungry

Service hours: 1 hour for preparing food and 1 hour for serving food.

ONE FAITH FAMILY FUTURE

ONE FAITH FAMILY FUTURE

It is our pleasure to announce the new addition to the school will be named the Tom and Judy Love Early Childhood Center.

Many of you knew Tom and Judy Love, long-time parishioners and supporters of Christ the King, who gave so much to our church, to our diocese, and to our community. In their honor, the Love family recently presented Christ the King with the leading gift for our One Faith, One Family, One Future Capital Campaign. We are grateful for this incredible support, which brings our current total of funds raised to more than $4.8M. We are especially grateful that the family has chosen our parish to be a part of Tom and Judy's legacy.

Thanks to all the donors who have generously pledged and/or donated to the campaign as of September 24th.
