CK Community,

As I sit in my office writing this letter, I find myself thinking of all the wonderful things about Christ the King School. I could fill this page listing all the positives about this special place that I have called a "home away from home" for 23 years. The word that would be at the top of the list is community. The CK community is what makes the school so special and unique. This community shares a strong commitment to the Catholic faith and a deep knowledge of what it means to be true followers of Christ. The community continuously gives time, talent and treasure to make sure a successful learning environment is available to all in the school. This community helps to provide fellowship and support to those students, individuals, and families who are in need. This community encourages and respects excellence throughout the school and helps to ensure it is achieved. And this community has supported me and stood by me both in great times and in difficult times. We are all part of this wonderful community called Christ the King School, and together we have accomplished so very much. With all that being said, this community will continue to be strong and awesome although leadership will look a little different next year.

As Father Rex said in his letter on Thursday, change is hard, but oftentimes it is needed. Personally for me, change was needed in my life as principal. I have treasured being part of administration at CK for the past 20 years and as principal for the last 7. I can honestly say there really have not been very many dull moments. The relationships I have formed with faculty, staff, clergy, parents, and especially students have been some of the most cherished relationships I have. This school has provided so much for me, and that is why I am grateful that I am not leaving the school, but rather just taking on a new role that will help enhance Christ the King School's mission. I am thankful that Fr. Rex feels strongly about this position as well.

There is no good-bye to this job at this time, that comes later. I still have the honor of being principal until June 30th. I look forward to the rest of the school year and the good work that is still left to do. Please know that I will continue to give 100% each day to make sure that your child(ren) are learning in a positive, faith-filled, safe environment..... and we will have fun along the way.

Once again thank you for your support and care over the years. We have accomplished a lot together, and I feel so very blessed to be part of this special place. Although change is difficult we must always remember the Lord is with us as we navigate through a new journey.

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go"
